Dear Mr. M [REDACTED],

We have accepted the offer in compromise you signed and dated on 11/15/2015, as modified by an addendum dated 05/18/2016. The acceptance date is the date of this letter and our acceptance is subject to the terms and conditions on the enclosed Form 656, Offer in Compromise.

We applied $250.00 as payment toward your accepted offer. The last payment we received was for $50.00 on 04/07/2016.

The conditions of the offer require you to timely file and pay all required taxes for five tax years (including any extensions). This requirement begins on the date of this letter.

Under the conditions of the offer, we will keep any refunds or credits you may be entitled to for 2016 or for earlier tax years, including refunds you may be entitled to receive in 2017 for any overpayments you made toward tax year 2016 or earlier tax years. We will apply any refunds or credits to your liability, not to your accepted offer. If we filed a Notice of Federal Tax Lien against you, we will release it when you pay the offer in full. If you make the final payment by credit or debit card, we won't be able to release the Notice of Federal Tax Lien for up to 120 days from the date of the credit or debit payment.

If you are required to make any payments under this agreement, make your check or money order payable to the United States Treasury and send it to:

Internal Revenue Service
P.O. Box 24015
Fresno, CA 93779

Please send all other correspondence to:

Internal Revenue Service
PO Box 9006

You must promptly notify us of any change in your address or marital status to ensure we can communicate with you about the status of your offer.

If you have submitted a joint offer with your spouse or former spouse and you are meeting or have met all the conditions of your offer agreement, but your spouse or former spouse does not meet the conditions of the offer agreement, your offer will not default.

If you fail to meet any of the terms and conditions of the offer, we will issue a notice to default the agreement. If the offer defaults, the original tax, including all penalties and interest will be due immediately. If we issue the default notice, we may:

- Immediately file suit to collect the entire unpaid balance of the offer.
- Immediately file suit to collect an amount equal to the original amount of the tax liability as liquidating damages, minus any payments already received under the terms of this offer.
- Disregard the amount of the offer and apply all amounts already paid under the offer against the original amount of the tax liability.
- File suit or levy to collect the original amount of the tax liability.

If you have any questions, you can contact the person listed at the top of this letter.

Sincerely,

Mr. C. Peters
Offer Manager
